

AROTA Invites Members of TNOTA to Join Us for Motivate at Member Rates

July 22-23, 2022

Located at Baptist Health College in Little Rock

MOTIVATE AGENDA

Friday, July 22, 2022

- 7:00- 8:00 Board breakfast
- 8:00-8:30 Registration/Breakfast/Exhibitor Time
- 8:30-9:30 Track I: Assessment and Intervention of Psychosocial Barriers among Hand Therapy Clients - Todd Sanders, OTR/L
Track II: Technology: What You Need to Know as You Plan for Inclusive Access—Jessica Krug, M.S., OTR/L, ATP, CBIS, and Katelynn Estes, OTD, OTR/L
- 9:30-10:30 Track I: American Occupational Therapy Political Action Committee: Advancing the Profession Through Advocacy - Brittany Saviers, PhD, OTR/L, and Dawn Sonnier, OTR/L
Track II: Role of the OT Working with Blind and Visually Impaired Children - Cary Smith, M.S., OTR/L, NBCOT certified, AOTA Low Vision Badges I & II
- 10:30-11:00 Break—Poster Presentations
- 11:00-12:30 Track I: Building Cultural Bridges: Inclusion, Diversity, and Equity in Academic Learning - Nancy Damarh, OTD, MSHS, OTR/L, CLT
Track II: NBCOT® National Certification Exam: Information You Need to Know – Barbra Williams, DrOT, MS, OTR/L, and Shaun Conway, OTR/L
- 12:30-2:00 Lunch & Business Meeting— Lunch Sponsored by AR College of Health Education served on campus
- 1:30-2:00 Exhibitor time
- 2:00-3:30 Track I: Choosing Wisely – Collaborating to Choose Wisely – Andrea Brown, OT R/L, Melissa Bowen, OTR/L, Melissa Foster, OTR/L, Amber Billingsly, OTR/L, Todd Sanders, OTR/L, and Laura Parnell, COTA/L
Track II: Best Practices in School-Based Occupational Therapy – Practical Application of the Guidance Document for OT in Arkansas Public Schools - Maria A. Ball, OTD, OTR/L, & Jessica Barnett-Krug, M.S., OTR/L, ATP, CBIS
- 3:30-3:45 Break
- 3:45-5:15 Track I: Yoga Balance: Decreasing Falls to Increase ADL Performance in Seniors - Arwen McDaniel, COTA/L
 Important: This session is a hands-on workshop that will require a change of clothes suitable for facilitating yoga positioning. Yoga mats and towels are also encouraged.
Track II: Embracing Neurodiversity: Examining Context to Enhance Social-Emotional Learning and Self-Regulation Outcomes - Amy Stark (Vaughan), OTD, OTR/L, BCP

Saturday, July 23, 2022

8:00-8:30 Registration/Breakfast

8:30-10:00 Track I: OT in Primary Health Care: A New Frontier - Sherry Muir, PhD, OTR/L

Track II: Commonly Performed Hand Surgeries and the Re-habilitation Approaches - Theresa Wyrick, MD, Dr. Marc Willey, OTR/L, CHT and Mark Ellis, OTR/L, CHT

10:00-10:30 Break—Poster Presentations

10:30-11:30 Track I: Panel Presentation - Cohort Analysis of Four Graduating Classes of OT Students' Knowledge of Aging - Brittany Saviers, PhD, OTR/L, LaVona Traywick, PhD, Terry Griffin, PhD, and Teresa Brown, PT, DPT, PhD, OCS

Track II: Important Professional Updates from the American Occupational Therapy Association including Question and Answer portion (60 min) – Jeremy Furniss

11:30-12:30 Track I (option 2): Trauma Informed Care with an Emphasis within the Refugee Population - Deborah Gangluff, Sc.D., OTR/L, and Karly K. Waller, OTS

Track II: Applying Our OT Resources: Forging Friendships with Frameworks and Models - Anna Bee Harris, OTR

12:30-1:30 Lunch Break on your own

1:30-2:30 Track I: The Role of Occupational Therapy in Working with the Homeless Population - Grace Velte, OTS, and Dr. Catherine Acre, Ed.D., OTR/L, FAOTA

Track II: A Longitudinal Study of the Effect of an International Level One Fieldwork Experience on Interprofessional & Cultural Competencies - Brittany Saviers, PhD, OTR/L, LaVona Traywick, PhD, Andree Ledbetter, OTD, OTR/L, and Deborah Gangluff, Sc.D., OTR/L

11.0 contact hours possible (CEUs)

Motivate has Something for Everyone—Speakers and Topics

What a line up!

AROTA Is bringing some of our finest educators from

American Occupational Therapy Association * Arkansas College of Health Education

Arkansas School for the Blind * Arkansas State University

University of Arkansas * University of Arkansas Cossatot

University of Central Arkansas

MOTIVATE Platinum

Sponsor

Cost to attend:

AROTA/TNOTA OT/OTA Members	$95
AROTA Student Members	$25
Student Non Members	$35
Non Members	$200

WHERE ELSE CAN YOU GET 11 CONTACT HOURS FOR SO LITTLE MONEY?

Register on line at www.AROTA.org/events

